

Home School Agreement

We, at _____, value each student's dreams by enriching them with the right values and providing them the opportunities in bringing out their full potential through our tools for education, to reach their goals, and overall preparing them for their future.

We have always believed that the parents are the primary and essential teachers of their children and that during this time where homeschooling becomes an integral part of education, we believe that having a strong relationship with parents is essential in reaching the standard that we aim to achieve.

During the effectivity of this Home School Agreement, we would like to share with you our commitment and we hope for you to agree to share the responsibility with us, as a parent as well as the first teacher of of your child.
