, renewable after expiration.

Use of Leased Premises - The Premises shall not be used other than for commercial purposes only.

Utilities - The Tenant is solely responsible for the payment for utilities such as electricity, water, gas, during the lease term.

Maintenance and Repairs - The Tenant shall maintain and return the possession of the premises in the same condition prior to the commencement of the Contract. Any damage caused by the negligence of the tenant, not from the cause of wear and tear, shall be the responsibility of the Tenant and shall pay for a payment for damage and repairs. Any damage considered to be extraordinary shall be reported to the Landlord as soon as possible.

Return of Deposit - The Landlord shall return the deposit amount to the Tenant within 30 days, upon the termination of the Agreement, given that damage incurred by the premises is within the acceptable wear and tear of the continued use of the premises.

Return of Premises - The Tenant shall surrender possession of the premises to the Landlord upon the termination of the lease term of this Agreement in the same condition as it was acquired in the commencement of the lease.

Sublease - The Tenant shall have the right to sublease the property or any portion thereof to a third party (the "Subtenant") with the prior written consent of the Landlord. Prior to entering into any sublease agreement, the Tenant shall provide written notice to the Landlord specifying the terms of the proposed sublease, including the identity of the Subtenant, the proposed term of the sublease, and any other material terms and conditions. Any sublease entered into by the Tenant shall be in writing and shall include provisions requiring the Subtenant to comply with all of the terms and conditions of the original lease agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant.

Real Estate Taxes - Payment of any taxes related to the property use shall be paid by the Landlord. However, taxes as to the business and name of the Tenant use shall be paid by the Tenant

Default - The Tenant shall be considered to be in default in any occurrence of the following:

- 1. Failure of Tenant to pay rent after demand;
- 2. The Tenant abandons the leased premises;
- 3. The Tenant uses the premises for purposes contrary to law.

Upon the Tenant's default under this lease agreement, the Landlord may provide the Tenant with written notice of such default, specifying the nature of the default and providing the Tenant with a reasonable opportunity to cure the default within _______ after receipt of the notice.

If the Tenant fails to cure the default within the cure period specified herein, the Landlord shall have the right, at its option, to pursue any one or more of the following remedies, without prejudice to any other remedies available at law or in equity:

- a. Terminate the lease agreement and re-enter and take possession of the Premises, with or without legal process, and remove all persons and property therefrom;
- b. Continue the lease agreement in effect and pursue any available legal remedies to collect the rent and other charges due under the lease agreement;
- c. Pursue any other legal or equitable remedies available to the Landlord under applicable law.
