The Storage Provider may relocate the vehicle within the storage facility when reasonably necessary for operational, maintenance, safety, or emergency purposes.

3. Storage Term

Storage begins on _____ and continues until _____, unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement.

If the Parties continue the storage arrangement after the stated end date without executing a new agreement, the storage shall continue on a month-to-month basis unless otherwise agreed in writing.

4. Storage Fees

The Owner agrees to pay the following charges:

Fee Description	Amount
Initial Storage Fee
Recurring Storage Fee

5. Delivery and Retrieval of Vehicle

The Owner shall deliver the vehicle to the Storage Provider in operating condition unless otherwise disclosed in writing.

Vehicle retrieval shall occur during the Storage Provider's regular business hours or at another mutually agreed time.

The Storage Provider may require reasonable proof of identity and ownership or authorization before releasing the vehicle.

6. Owner Responsibilities

The Owner represents and agrees that:

- The Owner has the legal authority to store the vehicle.
- The vehicle does not contain illegal property or hazardous materials prohibited by law or facility policies.
- The vehicle complies with applicable registration requirements unless otherwise disclosed and accepted by the Storage Provider.
- The Owner will promptly notify the Storage Provider of any change in ownership or contact information.
- Personal property stored inside the vehicle remains the Owner's responsibility.

7. Vehicle Condition

Upon delivery, the Parties may inspect the vehicle and record its visible condition.

Existing damage, missing parts, or notable conditions may be documented to establish the vehicle's condition at the time of storage.

The Storage Provider is not responsible for pre-existing damage or ordinary deterioration resulting from aging, weather exposure, or conditions beyond its reasonable control.

8. Insurance

The Owner is responsible for maintaining any insurance coverage the Owner considers appropriate for the stored vehicle and its contents.

The Storage Provider does not provide insurance coverage for the vehicle unless expressly stated in a separate written agreement.

Each Party remains responsible for maintaining any insurance required for its own business operations or legal obligations.

9. Access to the Vehicle

The Owner may access the vehicle during normal operating hours, subject to the Storage Provider's reasonable security procedures.

The Storage Provider may deny access if:

- Required payments remain overdue.
- Access would create a safety or security concern.
- Access would violate applicable law or facility policies.

10. Security Measures

The Storage Provider may maintain reasonable security measures, including controlled access, surveillance systems, fencing, lighting, or security personnel.

The Owner acknowledges that security measures reduce risk but do not guarantee protection against theft, vandalism, fire, natural disasters, or other unforeseen events.

11. Damage and Liability

Each Party is responsible for loss or damage resulting from its own negligence, wrongful acts, or failure to comply with this Agreement.

Except where prohibited by applicable law, the Storage Provider is not responsible for:

- Mechanical failures occurring during storage;
- Battery discharge resulting from normal inactivity;
- Tire pressure loss due to extended storage;
- Damage caused by weather, natural disasters, pests, or other events beyond its reasonable control;
- Theft or damage caused by third parties despite reasonable security measures.

Nothing in this Agreement limits liability for intentional misconduct, fraud, or liability that cannot legally be excluded.

12. Default

The Owner is in default if the Owner:

- Fails to pay required fees when due;
- Abandons the vehicle;
- Provides materially false information;
- Breaches any material obligation under this Agreement.

Upon default, the Storage Provider may exercise any rights available under this Agreement and applicable law, including suspending access to the vehicle until the default has been resolved.

13. Termination

Either Party may terminate this Agreement by providing _____ days' written notice before the intended termination date.

The Storage Provider may terminate this Agreement immediately if the Owner materially breaches its obligations or if continued storage creates a safety, legal, or operational risk.

Upon termination:

- The Owner shall promptly remove the vehicle.
- All outstanding fees become immediately due.
- The Storage Provider may continue charging storage fees until the vehicle is removed, subject to applicable law.

14. Notices

Any notice required under this Agreement shall be delivered by personal delivery, recognized courier, postal mail, or electronic mail to the addresses designated by each Party.

A Party shall promptly notify the other Party of any change to its contact information.

15. Force Majeure

Neither Party is responsible for delays or failure to perform caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including natural disasters, fire, flood, government action, labor disputes, power failures, or other similar events.

The affected Party shall notify the other Party as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the event.

16. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of _____, without regard to conflict of law principles.

Any dispute arising under this Agreement shall be resolved through the courts or other dispute resolution procedures having appropriate jurisdiction, unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing.

17. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties regarding the storage of the vehicle and supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations, or agreements relating to the same subject matter.

18. Amendments

Any amendment or modification to this Agreement must be made in writing and signed by both Parties.

19. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force to the fullest extent permitted by law.
